Mr. N.K. Agrawal, learned Dy. Advocate General, with Shri Sanjay S. Agrawal, learned Govt. Advocate for the State.

ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 5th April, 2006)

The dispute brought before the Court by way of this writ petition arises out of the rights and obligations arising out of an ordinary contract.

(2) Having perused the pleadings of the petitioner, I could see that the dispute brought before the Court bristles with many contentious issues resolution of which is not possible in a summary proceeding under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The proper forum to decide these contentious issues is the jurisdictional civil Court. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed, reserving liberty to the petitioner to work out his legal remedies as indicated above.
